

17.3.2020

Change in Viking Line's traffic between Helsinki and Stockholm.

Due to the current situation and concerns about the corona virus (covid-19), Viking Line will temporarily cancel the sailing between Helsinki (Finland) and Stockholm (Sweden) starting from Wednesday the 18th of March until the 13th of April 2020. Last departure, before the temporary cancellation, from Helsinki will be on Tuesday the 17th of March 2020 and from Stockholm on Wednesday the 18th of March 2020.

The traffic between Turku (Finland) and Stockholm (Sweden) continues normally.

Viking Line follows the instructions of the Finnish and Swedish authorities under the prevailing situation, while we work closely with the responsible authorities on all security-related issues, including the corona virus (covid-19).

Kindly, contact the Viking Line Cargo's freight booking department for freight transport options with Viking Line's other vessels in traffic.

With kind regards,

Viking Line Cargo