Dear freight customers,

We hope you have had a good summer. Our summer has been good and now we are getting prepared for the autumn.

Unfortunately, we still have relatively many limitations with our business concept caused by the corona epidemic. The limitations are forcing us to adjust our concept to be able to stand stronger in the future. All the changes are and will be carried out to secure our operations and quality long into the future.

We hope to have your understanding to these changes especially with our timetables, sometimes even very last-minute.
