Viking Line renews ship supply agreement with ME Group

Viking Line has extended its ship supply agreement with ME Group to cover the period May 1, 2016 to April 30, 2021. The Åland Islands-based company will continue to handle logistics for Viking Line. This means that ME Group will supply duty- and tax-free products, food, fragrances, groceries and other products sold on board Viking Line's vessels. The agreement covers deliveries worth about EUR 630 million during the five-year period.

"This contract is highly important to our operations and we are happy that we can continue working together with Viking Line," says Nils Lampi, CEO of Wiklöf Holdings, of which ME Group is a part.

Viking Line is also pleased with having completed the negotiations. "We chose ME Group because it is a local company and because we know that they have smoothly functioning operations. We are happy that our collaboration will continue," says Jan Hanses, President and CEO of Viking Line.
